

05.08.2009

USA: Hearings concerning milk price crisis

The milk price crisis does not end at the European frontiers. It is a world wide crisis. Also in the United States of America farmers are confronted with the tough consequences of the low prices. In July several hearings an the House Committee on Agriculture took place in order to discuss the crisis and possible solutions.

see webside of House Committee on Agriculture for details