

News Details

News Details

03.10.2022

EMB newsletter for September/October online!

Farm work is not “just” farm work. It is called the primary sector for a reason because without it, other economic activities would not be possible. Without farmers, there are no farms, and without farms, there is no food. Politicians seem to have forgotten where their meals come from. They have come to take for granted stocked supermarket shelves and grocery carts filled with affordable, quality food. Read more.

<<< back