

News Details

News Details

20.04.2010

Hundreds of liter of milk spilled in France

Around 150 milk producers responded to an APLI call and gathered in Nantes on April, 1st to demonstrate their discontent about the current milk market situation. They spilled hundreds of liters of milk in the city center.

It was a symbolic action to make clear that many dairy farmers lost their farms last year because of the milk crisis.

<<< back