

News Details

News Details

09.11.2009

Hungarian farmers protesting with cow skulls

Thursday, November 5th Hungarian farmers protested in the cities Budapest, Győr, Pécs, Miskolc und Szeged. They demand regulations to stop cheap imports. To demonstrate how desperate the situation is, they put cow skulls on the streets and spilled milk. Because of dumping milk prices a great amount of dairy cattle has to be slaughtered continually.

Link to pictures

<<< back