Invitation to joint press conference at agricultural fair in Paris

1st March at 2.30pm

The European Milk Board (EMB), the milk section of the Coordination Rurale (CR) and the Association des Producteurs de Lait Indépendants (APLI) are pleased to invite you to a press conference to be held at the Salon International de l'Agriculture:

Tuesday 1st March at 2.30pm
Conference room 728 (Hall 7)

Paris Expo Porte de Versailles
1 Place de la Porte de Versailles
75015 PARIS

During this conference, the three organisations will present the economic expectations of dairy farmers and their fears concerning the future of livestock farming.

The price needed to cover the production costs of dairy farmers will be at the heart of this presentation. Especially in view of the increase in costs, this price has been reassessed by the three organisations and is now set at a minimum of 50 cents/litre for France.

For logistical reasons, please confirm your presence by mail: marion.vignier[at]coordinationrurale.fr or by phone: +33 (0)6 70 80 99 51.
Conference language will be French.

For your information: a valid certificate of vaccination or recovery will be requested at the entrance of the Exhibition Centre. Please find more information here.
