Jan Slomp: The Canadian dairy system & CETA in the spotlight

Expert meeting & discussion

Jan Slomp, president of Canada's National Farmers Union (NFU), recently encouraged agriculture commissioner Phil Hogan to adopt a Canadian-style dairy system in order to solve the European dairy crisis¹. He is coming to Brussels to share Canada's more than 50 years of experience with market management.

Meet Mr Slomp and discuss with him the Canadian dairy system and how CETA would impact milk farmers on both sides of the Atlantic.

19 September, 13:30 - 14:30
