

News Details

News Details

12.05.2020

Newsletter May online!

Today the world is governed by fear. The fact that we all live in fear is, among other things, a direct consequence of how "we" decided some decades ago that the way forward would be globalisation: we have interwoven our economic flows to the greatest possible extent. We thought it would be beneficial to all of us. For the sake of simplicity, "we" forgot that globalisation also entailed risks.

Read more

<<< back