

News Details

News Details

16.11.2009

Press voices from different countries

France press voices:

Statement of Bruno le Maire, french minister of Agriculture, concerning the emergency plan for french agricultural sector (french) - "Plan d'urgence en faveur de l'agriculture"

<link fileadmin dokumente frankreich download file>Statement french Ministry of Alimentation, Agriculture and Fisheries (french)

New day of activities in west of France - french dairy farmers block trucks at the entry of several dairies (french)

<link fileadmin dokumente frankreich download file>One year after (french) - the anger of dairy farmers is still there. They won't stop putting pressure on politics and industry until milk prices have increased (french).

Germany - press voices:

<link fileadmin dokumente deutschland download file>EU Council of Agriculture Ministers ist shortened to a one-day-meeting on Friday, 20th of November (german)

<link fileadmin dokumente deutschland milch_zu_weltmarktpreisen_2.pdf download file>Milk for world market prices (german) - impressions of a swiss farmers' group visiting an US-dairy farm in Wisconsin

<link fileadmin dokumente deutschland kartellamt_sieht_nachteile.pdf download file>Antitrust Agency sees disadvantages (german) - the german antitrust agency analyses the dairy market and realises that the dairy sector passes currently a painful process of adaptation. Especially dairy farmers were affected

<link fileadmin dokumente deutschland download file>European farmers' association advises dairy farmers to concentrate their milkvolume (german)

Australia - press voices:

<link fileadmin dokumente ireland australia_-_lift_in_dairy_prices.pdf download file>Australia - Lift in dairy prices (english)

A dairy co-operative in northern NSW has paid its suppliers a record milk price. Norco chairman Greg McNamara says the 56.72 cents a litre is the highest paid to farmers in the cooperative history.

<<< back