

News Details

News Details

26.09.2009

Update - farmer's revolt in Europe - 26.09.09

The prices of the German cheese, Gouda(45%, Block), as registered weekly on the Kempten market has been risen about 11 Cent compared to the price before the strike. "This is a success of the dairy farmers", Sieta van Keimpema, EMB-Vice president is saying.

Many actions of protest will take place in Germany, France, Belgium, Austria, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands and Switzerland in the upcoming days and weeks. Today an action in Berlin is taking place concerning the election to show Chancellor Merkel the devastating situation of farmers. In Switzerland farmers are sending every day one liter of milk to the federal office of agriculture as protest action: "Now the politics should deal with the surplus of milk", a swiss dairy armer explains the background of this action.

<<< back